

John Numbi

- ❖ Born: 1957;
- ❖ Place of birth: Kolwezi, Katanga Province, Democratic Republic of Congo;
- ❖ Rank: General;
- ❖ Service: Former National Inspector, Congolese National Police;
- ❖ During March 2016, gubernatorial elections in the DRC's four ex-Katangan provinces, Numbi used violent intimidation to secure victories for candidates affiliated with President Kabila's MP coalition.
- ❖ Numbi threatened to kill opposition candidates who did not voluntarily withdraw from the race, and on the same day these exchanges purportedly took place, three candidates withdrew.
- ❖ Numbi also reportedly gave provincial deputies a unique numeric code to write on each of their ballots so he could verify their votes after the election.
- ❖ Though he is no longer a DRC Government official, Numbi is reportedly an influential advisor to President Kabila.
- ❖ OFAC designated Numbi, on 28 September 2016, for engaging in actions or policies that undermine democratic processes or institutions in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Date: 25-11-2016